

I believe the no call list should not be tampered with by any legal entity within Wisconsin or without unless the people demand it. In this case, business entities are demanding it and that is wrong. We cannot bow to the wants of business, we should be meeting the needs of the public.